

23. Winn Brothers Cave

At the northernmost Helderberg escarpment directly above the village of Altamont solution channels have established a series of shallow caves. Legend has it that the Winn Brothers robbed a train and used these caves as a protective shelter after the robbery.

This is the final Landmark in the Helderbergs, the Long Path descending to the village of Altamont and then heading up the valley of the Bozen Kill.

