

64. Deer Creek

The River Road no longer extends northwestward beyond Crystalline Falls to Deer Creek but a fisherman's trail follows near the edge of the Hudson River which can be followed.

The mouth of Deer Creek is a Landmark. It drains a wide area around Minerva. Crossing Deer Creek the route leads to the Boreas River and then upstream to the Blue Ledge following a fisherman's trail at the edge of the River.

