

Second Pond Trail

Johnsburg, New York

Difficulty: Intermediate
Length: 5.4 mi roundtrip
Time to Complete: half day
Trailhead Coordinates: -74.042, 43.645
Elevation Gain: 240'
Trail Notes:

This seldom used trail involves some mud and a bit of log scrambling and rock hopping, but the reward is a wild, pristine, half mile pond at trail's end. The trail is well-marked and mostly flat, with a couple locations of moderate elevation change. The pond is a great spot to fish for brook trout, and a primitive campsite allows for an overnight adventure.
