

Wilcox Lake Trail (via Harrisburg Rd)

Stony Creek, New York

Difficulty: Moderate
Length: 5 mi roundtrip
Time to Complete: 3-4 hours
Trailhead Coordinates: -73.592, 43.738
Trail Notes:

This is a pretty, relatively flat hike, first along an old road marked with blue markers, then across a suspension bridge over East Stony Creek and up a hill on a red-marked trail. At the trail intersection, continue straight on the yellow trail down to the lake. A new lean-to on the east shore offers a lovely destination for a picnic or overnight camping trip. The lake is a great trout fishing spot.

From the south, take the Northway to Exit 23. Turn left off the exit and then right onto Route 9 North for half a mile. Turn left onto Judd Bridge and then right onto River St/NY 418 West for 3.9mi. Continue onto Stony Creek/Warrensburg Rd for 8.6mi into Stony Creek. In Stony Creek, turn right onto Harrisburg Rd and continue for 11mi to the end of the pavement. For those without a four-wheel drive vehicle, a parking area is available on the right and hikers can hike in 3.3mi along the one lane dirt road to the trailhead shown on the map below. Those with four-wheel drive vehicles can continue driving along the bumpy dirt road, to a small parking lot on the right, just before the creek crossing and a suspension foot bridge. The trail log book is shortly past the foot bridge.
