

Warren County Board of Supervisors

Proclamation

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of our Nation in countless ways, and have played, and continue to play, critical economic, cultural, and social roles in every sphere of the life of the Nation by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working both inside and outside of the home, and

WHEREAS, American women have played a unique role throughout the history of the Nation in providing the majority of the volunteer labor force and have been particularly important in the establishment of early charitable, philanthropic, and cultural institutions in our Nation, and

WHEREAS, American women of every race, class, and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of each major progressive social change movement, have served our country courageously in the military, and have been leaders, not only in securing their own rights of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor movement, the civil rights movement, and the peace movement, which sought to create a more fair and just society for all, and

WHEREAS, Warren County has long had a history of women playing important roles in our society and contributing to the growth into the community that we now enjoy, pioneering women such as Georgia O’Keeffe, Harriet Wing, Dr. Annie Hull, Mary Hilliard Loines, Frances Kinnear, Gracie Hanneford and Annie LaBastille, and

WHEREAS, the Warren County Board of Supervisors has made great strides in valuing and honoring the contributions of the women within the County’s employ by placing them in leadership roles such as Department Heads, Committee Chairs, delegates and representatives to outside groups, and, for the first time in the history of this County, a Chairwoman of the Board of Supervisors for 2021, now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I, Rachel E. Seeber, Chairwoman of the Warren County Board of Supervisors, do hereby proclaim the month of March 2021 to be in Warren County, and encourage all county officials, employees, schools and residents to observe and celebrate with appropriate programs, ceremonies and activities.

RACHEL E. SEEBER, CHAIRWOMAN
