

Warren County Board of Supervisors

Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Nurses Week is celebrated each year between May 6th, National Nurses Day, and May 12th, the birthday of celebrated nurse Florence Nightingale, and

WHEREAS, National Nurses Week honors the contributions and sacrifices of nurses and serves as a reminder to thank the medical professionals who keep individuals and communities healthy, and

WHEREAS, Nurses are extraordinary individuals who display courage, care, dedication and commitment in caring for others and Warren County is fortunate to have many of these dedicated, caring professionals living and working within its borders, particularly those public health nurses employed within the Warren County Health Services Department, and

WHEREAS, The American Public Health Association defines public health nursing as the practice of promoting and protecting the health of populations using knowledge from nursing, social and public health sciences, and

WHEREAS, public health nurses work to promote wellness and help prevent disease and reduce health risks through evidence-based care and education, and

WHEREAS, Warren County's public health nurses serve in many critical roles throughout our region under various programs and services offered by Warren County Health Services, and

WHEREAS, the knowledge and skills of public health nurses enable them to make significant contributions to public health through a unique combination of clinical nursing background with knowledge from the public health and social sciences, and

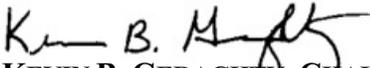

WHEREAS, it is more important than ever to celebrate nurses across all fields for their unwavering care and dedication for their patients and communities, now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I, Kevin B. Geraghty, Chairman of the Warren County Board of Supervisors, upon a majority vote of the Board of Supervisors, do hereby proclaim the week of May 6 - 12, 2022 to be in Warren County, and urge every resident to recognize, appreciate and express gratitude and respect for the dedicated nursing professionals in our community who work tirelessly to preserve the health of all those in our community.
