

EDC FORECAST 2022 "Economy of Now"

Wednesday, January 26, 2022, 8:30-10 AM

Free to Attend • Advance Registration Required • Live via Zoom

Liza Ochsendorf

Director of Warren County Employment & Training

Liza is an educator turned workforce development professional with a passion for public service and helping individuals and communities achieve their greatest potential through collaboration, workforce development, and economic partnerships.

Elizabeth "Libby" Coreno

Law Office of M. Elizabeth Coreno, Esq. PC

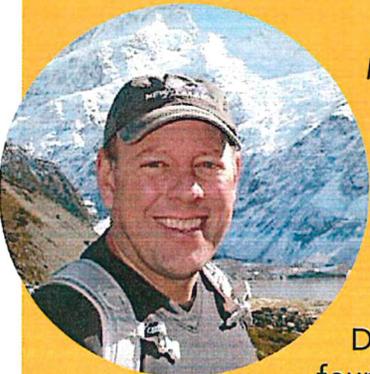

Libby provides counsel and consulting services to individuals, regional businesses, and international corporations in the real estate and construction industries.

Jim Siplon

President & CEO of EDC Warren County

Jim is a multi-faceted business and operational leader, and is former COO of JUST Water, former Managing Director of FIJI Water, and founder of rethinkH2O.

Investors, policymakers, real estate professionals and business owners are invited to this event shedding light on the Economy of Now.

Learn about the future of the workforce with insights from Liza Ochsendorf, Director of Warren County of Employment and Training.

Gain vision into real estate forecasts with insider information from Libby Coreno, consultant with Bonacio Construction and other corporations.

EDC President Jim Siplon will speak to retooling around the post-COVID economy and shifting our focus to strategize for the issues of today.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

