

Recouping Lost Utility Revenue and
Reducing Future Utility Costs

ST Network

Utilities And The Present Situation

- “In a single year, public utility companies have over-billed their customers $19 billion dollars”-US House of Representatives, Ways and Means Committee. This over billing has occurred for years with the following services, Telecommunications, Electricity & Gas, Water & Sewage
- Companies may have utility management software, but this is primarily for allocation and management of services
- Small mistakes compounded over many months or several years can result in overpayments
- Even our most advanced customers are not able to review the complex data needed to uncover inconsistencies in billing

Our Simple Process

To get started we only require the following:

- One bill for the service we are recovering
 - Electric, Gas, Water, Sewage, Telecommunications
- The signed LOA which provides the ability for us to review past bills
- The signed contingency agreement
 - The agreement simply states we will not charge any fees, only receive 50% of the recovery and if there is no recovery there is nothing owed
 - You also have the option for us to review future billing as well
- Please note it will take a few weeks to go through the initial bill and in 4 to 8 weeks we should have an estimate as to the amount of the recovery you may be receiving
- The documents mentioned above are listed on the following pages:

Agreement

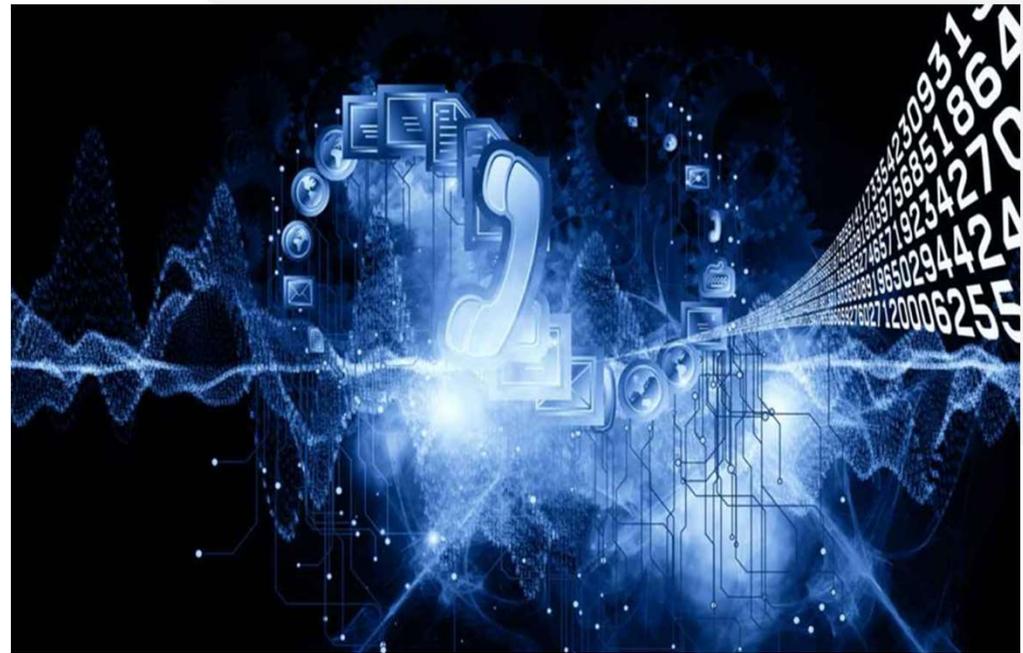

TRI Utility Cost Reductions, Inc.
2255 Glades Road Suite 324A Boca Raton, FL 33431	40 Wall Street 28 th Floor New York, NY 1005
1-844-76-REFUND Agreement
This Agreement dated _____ is between TRI Utility Cost Reductions, Inc. hereinafter referred to as "TRI" and (your company name) _____ hereinafter referred to as "Client."
TRI agrees to conduct a Utility Refund Audit by analyzing Client's Utility billings. The Client chooses to have TRI conduct a utility audit of the following (initial appropriate boxes):
<input type="checkbox"/> Telecommunications <input type="checkbox"/> Electricity & Gas <input type="checkbox"/> Water & Sewage
TRI's objective is to obtain refunds, credits and reductions that relate to the above. All information submitted by TRI on Client's behalf is confidential and cannot be independently used by Client's organization to effect refunds. Any such attempt by Client will be construed as a breach of this agreement and TRI shall be entitled to its fee, as due per below.
For any refunds or credits obtained by TRI from historical utility errors initiated above, the fee is 50% of any refunds or credits effected on behalf of the client. This also applies to future refunds that the client receives as a result of TRI's efforts.
Where there is a reduction in the client's monthly charges for services as initiated above, as a result of TRI's efforts, TRI earns a fee equal to 50% of the monthly savings. This is paid to TRI monthly for 36 months starting with the first month that reflects the reduction. This reduction will be fully documented by TRI. Should Client discontinue services that were reduced by TRI, TRI will no longer share in these reductions. If Client does not receive any refunds, credits or reductions, there is no fee for TRI's Refund Audit. The terms of this agreement shall remain confidential.
Client may terminate this Agreement by giving TRI 30 days advance written notice. In the event of termination, Client shall continue to pay to TRI its fee due based on any refunds, credits or reductions earned by TRI pursuant to the terms of this Agreement as of the date of termination. Additionally, subsequent to termination, TRI is authorized to complete any open utility reviews and negotiations but shall not commence any new reviews or negotiations. Once concluded, TRI shall also be entitled to 50% of all refunds, credits and reductions effected on behalf of Client.
The fee due as detailed above, will then be due & owing TRI. Further, client agrees to approve (and sign if requested) any papers the carrier or provider may need or require in order to process refunds, credits & reductions due the client.
