Proclamation

WHEREAS, in 1958, President Eisenhower promulgated the first Law Day in the USA as “a day of national dedication to the principals of government under law” and every year since the President has officially promulgated Law Day as a celebration of our commitment to the rule of law, “an occasion for rededication to the ideals of equality and justice under the law”, a great commitment enshrined in the Declaration of Independence and the United States Constitution which has been reaffirmed by the work and deeds of great Americans throughout our Nation’s history, and

WHEREAS, the Law Day 2023 theme is “Cornerstones of Democracy: Civics, Civility, and Collaboration,” and

WHEREAS, the Constitution is a dynamic document, as it not only outlines a blueprint for government, but also delegates power, articulates rights, and offers mechanism for changes, but is neither perfect, nor exhaustive, as our nation’s history makes clear, and

WHEREAS, Legislation, court rulings, amendments, lawyers, and “we the people” have built upon those original words across generations to attempt to make the “more perfect Union” more real, and

WHEREAS, the effort continues today, as contemporary leaders and everyday citizens raise their voices as loud as ever to fulfill the promise of the Constitution, and

WHEREAS, the 2023 Law Day Theme - Cornerstones of Democracy: Civics, Civility, and Collaboration - reminds us all that defining and refining those words of the Constitution might be our oldest national tradition, and how each of us works together toward a more perfect Union, and
