

Warren County Board of Supervisors

Proclamation

WHEREAS, surviving a crime can have myriad lasting effects on victims, including physical, psychological, social and financial issues, and

WHEREAS, we know that countless survivors never tell anyone about what happened to them, and

WHEREAS, each of us has a moral responsibility to actively participate in the healing of others, and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to create safe environments for survivors of crime, providing not only support but also access to critical services and, above all, hope, and

WHEREAS, victim service providers, community members, businesses, places of worship, colleagues, neighbors, and family members are capable of providing victim-centered, trauma-informed, and culturally responsive support, and

WHEREAS, we must listen to survivors and be willing to create new options for support to ensure that all victims of crime can receive help and seek justice, and

WHEREAS, we must do everything we can to show survivors that hope - the belief that the future will be better - is not just tangible but within their reach, and

WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week encourages all people to ask themselves the question, "How would you help a victim of crime", and

WHEREAS, Warren County is hereby dedicated to raising awareness of options, services, and hope for crime survivors, now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I, Kevin B. Geraghty, Chairman of the Warren County Board of Supervisors, do hereby proclaim the week of April 21-27, 2024, to be in Warren County, reaffirming our commitment to creating a victim service and criminal justice response that assists all victims of crime during Crime Victims' Rights Week and throughout the year; and expressing our sincere gratitude and appreciation for those community members, victim service providers, and criminal justice professionals who are committed to improving our response to all victims of crime so that they may find relevant assistance, support, justice and peace.

CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK
