

Warren County Board of Supervisors

Proclamation

WHEREAS, each year since 1990, the Adirondack Regional Chamber of Commerce has given an award for community service in the name of local industrialist and philanthropist J. Walter Juckett, and

WHEREAS, this award annually recognizes members of the community who selflessly go above and beyond by contributing time and energy to help others and demonstrate significant contributions to the community in the field of human services, education, business, or industry, and

WHEREAS, over the years, this prestigious award has honored 36 different people who make up the fabric of our community, and

WHEREAS, longtime local businessman and community leader George Ferone has been deservedly selected as the 2025 J. Walter Juckett Award nominee, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Ferone spent 44 years with Tribune Media Services in Queensbury, helping spearhead the construction of the company headquarters that kept 400 jobs in our region, and

WHEREAS, In addition to his impressive career, he has years of extensive community service that includes serving as a board member for the Glens Falls Hospital Foundation, Tri-County United Way, Adirondack Civic Center Coalition, Prospect Child and Family Center, and the Adirondack Hockey Coalition. He also served 14 years on the ARCC board, including two terms as chairman, and serving as interim president for a time, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Ferone, a longtime Queensbury resident, has been an exceptional community leader for many years, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, the Warren County Board of Supervisors congratulates George Ferone on this well-deserved award, and thanks him for his years of selfless efforts to the residents of Warren County and the region and extends our deepest gratitude to the Adirondack Regional Chamber of Commerce for annually recognizing individuals who are pillars of our community with the prestigious J. Walter Juckett award.
