

Warren County Board of Supervisors

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Each year, the Warren County Historical Society chooses an individual for its prestigious “John D. Austin Jr. Contribution to History Award,” given annually to those who make exemplary contributions in the name of Warren County history, and

WHEREAS, The award is presented in memory of the late Hon. John D. Austin Jr. of Queensbury, who was a noted judge, attorney, county historian, genealogist, and founding member of Warren County Historical Society until his passing in 2019, and

WHEREAS, Warren County Historical Society chose Queensbury Supervisor John Strough to receive the 2024 “John D. Austin Jr. Contribution to History Award,” presenting him with the award at a ceremony in January 2025, and

WHEREAS, Supervisor Strough has given innumerable hours of his time and expertise to teach history, both during his career as an educator in Queensbury schools and through volunteer work with the Historical Society and numerous other organizations, and

WHEREAS, Few, if any, are as dedicated as Supervisor Strough to ensuring the history of Warren County, and the Town of Queensbury, is fairly and accurately represented as well as appreciated, and

RESOLVED, that I, Kevin B. Geraghty, Chairman of the Warren County Board of Supervisors, do hereby congratulate Supervisor Strough for the prestigious honor of the

and we thank him for all he has done in the name of Warren County and Queensbury history.
